

4th and 5th Graders! Register Now!

Fourth and fifth graders are invited to participate in Thomas Paine’s Battle of the Books program! Join the fun, read great books, talk about them with your friends, and then “battle” it out to see which team remembers the most about the books!

What to do?

1. Sign up. Fill out the form below and return it to your teacher by Thursday, October 26th
2. Participate in monthly meetings with parent volunteers and your friends. Meetings take place during the lunch/recess period on the dates below.
3. Read! And have fun talking about books and seeing who can remember the most. Each student must read at least 8 books from the book list.

4. Participate in end of year events:

* Thomas Paine Battle of Books: March 28th (1:45pm)

Please make sure your child is available on this date.

Teammates will be counting on each other.

* District-Level Celebration: TBD (during school)

Meeting Dates

- November 8th
- December 6th
- January 10th
- February 14th
- March 14th

Battle of the Books

_____ Yes! I would like to participate in Battle of the Books.

_____ I will read at least 8 books from the book list and participate in the monthly meetings held at Thomas Paine.

_____ I can attend the school competition at Thomas Paine Wednesday, March 28th

Student Name

Student’s Teacher

Parent Signature

Parent Email– please print very clearly

Name a few friends you’d like on your team. Please note: this doesn’t guarantee they will be on your team.